INVITATION

We are delighted to invite businesses, civil society and adult education sectors, students, academics, teachers, to take part to the event "Embracing change in educating business, engineering and entrepreneurship students: from teacher- centered to student-centered learning – an intercultural view", organized through the ERASMUS+ project 2017-1-RO01-KA203-037145 - "Innovative Student-Centred Learning (SCL) Practices fueled with ITC-tools and university – industry cooperation towards reinforcement of Business & Engineering Entrepreneurships education – "InoLearn 4 BEEs".

The 1st multiplier event, jointly organized by the Technical University of Kosice and University Politehnica of Bucharest targets to fertilize the Slovakian business, education, labor market and society sectors with cross-disciplinary views on the strategic role of universities for value creation to today's society challenges. It envisages revealing the benefits of changing the paradigm from teacher-centred to student-centred approach based on the active involvement of industry and society at large in the world of education.

The agenda topics aims to increased visibility of first intellectual output (O1) in terms of pedagogical design and educational components which create value for students, by making the learning process in business, engineering and entrepreneurship more directly relevant to the learners. The event is based on dissemination of intellectual output O1. Joint Methodological Guide for SCL with:

- Excerpt from O1/A1: Literature review and analyse international resources for student-centered learning approach, methods and tools relevant for higher education (HE).
- Excerpt from O1/A2: Analyze and document innovative pedagogies, methods and teaching skills useful for HE Student – Centered Learning techniques, and mix of digital and entrepreneurial skills for teachers gained through the learning process of C1. The short-term joint staff training event.

- Excerpt from O1/A3: Design the methodological guide for SC Learning.

The event will take place on Friday, 12th October 2018, between 9.45 - 17.00 in the new building of TUKE – University Science Park Technicom of Technical University of Kosice.
